Dear Dick:

This is a follow-up to our previous communication concerning Mr. Gary Horton. We have stopped the registration and sent a credit notice to you for the fees which were paid for his registration in Troop 24. This will enable you to refund the fees to Mr. Horton.

We feel we must refuse the registration at this time, because of the incident which have taken place. This certainly would not reflect well on the Boy Scouts of America to have a leader who has been accused of the sexual molestation of scouts.

There can be a review of this situation after the final disposition takes place, if it is felt by Mr. Horton that he has been denied registration unfairly.

If you have any questions concerning this please do not hesitate to contact us. We will stand by our refusal at this time until this matter is completely resolved.

Sincerely,

Paul Ernst, Director

ACCUSATIONS AGAINST GARY HORTON

Gary Horton, Assistant Scoutmaster with Troop 14 of Hampton Park Christian Church has been accused of sexually molesting two Scouts on separate occasions in Troop 14, [REDACTED]

Mac Parcell, Scoutmaster of Troop 14 and Dick Ball, Unit Commissioner, informed me on September 12, 1985 that Gary had been confronted by the two of them concerning the accusations. Gary denied the accusations. It was decided that Gary should resign from the Troop for the sake of the Scouts. Gary agreed. I discussed the matter with Tom Broyles.

Apparently [REDACTED] confided in his best friend, also a Scout in Troop 14. The friend told his parents who then contacted [REDACTED] parents. [REDACTED] parents then confronted [REDACTED] who admitted the story to them. [REDACTED] parents then contacted Mac Parcell.

According to Detective Duane Frantz, of the Toledo Police Department, a second boy, [REDACTED], also a Scout in Troop 14, reportedly stated that Gary Horton molested him on a separate occasion. [REDACTED] ran away from home in December 1985 and was picked up by the Children's Services Board. He was questioned and when the subject of homosexuality was brought up, Gary Horton's name was mentioned.

Children's Services called the Toledo Police Department and Detective Duane Frantz of the Personal Assault Division contacted me on January 9, 1986. He stated that neither of the parents, [REDACTED] or [REDACTED], intended to prosecute, but were concerned that Gary Horton not be involved in the Scouting program. He felt that as long as Gary remained out of the Scouting program, no other action would be taken by anyone concerned.

I talked with Tom Broyles and Dick Larimer concerning the matter, and was asked by Dick to record in writing what I had been told.
